

REMO RAY GAIETTO - FINE ARTIST

A professional artist since 1980, I live and work in Rockport, Massachusetts.

I owned an art gallery on Cape Ann for 19 years (14 years on Rocky Neck in Gloucester, Massachusetts, 5 years in Rockport).

My interest in art started at an early age with drawing and cartooning, and in the middle seventies evolved seriously into oil and watercolor painting, silkscreening, and finally computer-generated art.

I produced art part-time in conjunction with my full time Industrial Design profession in New York and New Jersey. In the mid-eighties I learned Computer Aided Design, and that knowledge gradually turned me into an enthusiastic computer artist.

The subject matter of my oil and watercolor paintings, and pc-art, is mostly about Cape Ann, New England, and Italy, all areas where I have been painting for many years.

Art education

St. Martin's School of Art, London;
The School of Visual Art, The New School,
The Art Students League (life member), New York City.

Group and 2-man shows:

"Alla prima" oil painting awards.

Collected in US and abroad.

Member

North Shore Art Association, Gloucester MA.
Rockport Art Association, Rockport MA.

Web site: www.remofineart.com

E-mail: info@remofineart.com

Mailing address: P.O.Box 42, Rockport MA 01966

My pc-created images, as well as reproductions of some of my original paintings, are available as unframed digital prints (giclee) in limited editions of 300. Image size: 12"x18" and 16"x24" (suggested frames: 18"x24" and 22"x30"). Archival inks (Wilhelm Research Lab: 108 yrs color permanence when framed w/glass). Certificate of Authenticity.